

Kaihononga Māori - Position Description

New Zealand Playcentre Aotearoa Vision/Mission:

Whānau Tupu Ngātahi - Families growing together.

Playcentre is a family organisation where:

- we empower adults and children to play, work, learn and grow together
- we honour Te Tiriti o Waitangi and celebrate people's uniqueness
- we value and affirm parents as the first and best educators of their children so that whānau are strengthened and communities enriched

Purpose of the Position

Provide advice to enact the strategic plan and support Playcentre to incorporate and embed Te Ao Māori into its services by:

- Collaboratively supporting and guiding kaimahi and whānau to develop Playcentre's cultural capability
- Supporting Rōpū Māori to function effectively
- Contributing to the development of a Te Ao Māori delivery model
- Identifying key local and Te Ao Māori relationships and building reciprocal relationships and partnerships and supporting kaimahi and whānau to build and sustain those connections

Please note this job description may change from time to time as reasonably required by Playcentre Aotearoa.
